SIGNS · VINYL · DESIGN

Attached is an approval proof of your print project. This approval proof is presented to you for review to confirm that your job is set correctly.

Visual 6 Graphics provides this approval proof as a proactive tool for your benefit, and we ask that you please use this tool to your advantage. We ask that you check this proof carefully for misspellings, grammatical errors, missing & incorrect fonts, missing or re-wrapping text, or misplaced images that may appear. We will not be responsible for errors you approve. Please bring any changes to our immediate attention. We will discuss the details of these changes with you to insure we completely understand your requirements, we will make requested changes, and we will provide you with a revised approval proof once the changes are complete.

Please Note:

- It is not our policy to proof read electronic files that originate elsewhere; unless specified.
- It is important to review this proof carefully, as V6 Graphics is not responsible for any errors and/or mistakes for work printed per customer's approval. While we make every effort to produce premium quality projects, V6 Graphics cannot accept responsibility or liability for errors and mistakes if work is printed as per customer's approval.
- This proof of your project is intended for content and position only.
- The colors shown are only approximated on any computer monitor or laser print. The color appearances vary from computer to computer depending on color, contrast, and brightness settings on each computer, and surrounding lighting conditions.
- V6 Graphics will not move forward on final print of any project without a digital or signed and dated approval proof.
- If the original proof requires revisions, you will receive two complimentary editing opportunities to request changes to your project proof. If additional editing sessions are necessary, you will be charged an hourly rate for the work and/or materials required. Additional editing sessions may also affect your scheduled completion date.

Please sign, date and return this form to verify that V6 Graphics has provided an approval proof of your print project, and that you understand the approval proof process. We cannot proceed with production until we have received this completed form.
